

Thomas Clement is the Director of Processing, with over 15 years of experience in processing leadership and operations management. His experience as a Logistics and Management Supervisor at Kroger, has brought targeted skill sets in building accurate systems and successfully leading our newly acquired processing facility. Thomas is dedicated to the Hawaiian community, with a long lineage of Hawaiian family history. He feels a sense of responsibility for the island and the 'Āina, and is proud to be part of a company that is built on these foundations. His family resides in Kailua-Kona where Thomas enjoys spearfishing and diving.